Seventh Grade Lesson Plan: Tejanas and LULAC

Introduction: Tejanas have participated in the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), the oldest civil rights organization of Latinos in the United States, since it was established in 1929.

Objective: This lesson plan introduces students to Tejanas' work with LULAC, including Ladies LULAC. At the end of the lesson, students will have gained an understanding of how women leaders in LULAC and in Ladies LULAC helped win civil rights and voting rights for Latinos. The lesson can be covered in two class periods.

TEKS:

(b) Knowledge and skills.

(7) History. The student understands how individuals, events, and issues shaped the history of Texas during the 20th century. The student is expected to:

   (C) trace the civil rights and equal rights movements of various groups in Texas in the 20th century and identify key leaders in these movements.

(18) Citizenship. The student understands the importance of effective leadership in a democratic society. The student is expected to:

   (B) analyze the contributions of Texas leaders.

(21) Social studies skills. The student applies critical-thinking skills to organize and use information acquired from a variety of sources, including electronic technology. The student is expected to:

   (B) analyze information by sequencing, categorizing, identifying cause-and-effect relationships, comparing, contrasting, finding the main idea, summarizing, making generalizations and predictions, and drawing inferences and conclusions.

   (C) organize and interpret information from outlines, reports, databases, and visuals, including graphs, charts, timelines, and maps.

   (E) support a point of view on a social studies issue or event.

(22) Social studies skills. The student communicates in written, oral, and visual forms. The student is expected to:

   (B) use standard grammar, spelling, sentence structure, and punctuation.

   (D) create written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information.

LULAC & Ladies LULAC Comparison & Contrast Essay

Using your responses in the comparison and contrast tables on the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and Ladies LULAC, write an essay discussing why Ladies LULAC was organized or why it was needed. Use additional paper, if needed.
Esther & Alice Create a Place for Women’s Voices in LULAC

Esther Nieto Machuca and Alice Dickerson Montemayor were LULAC leaders. They were successful because they knew how to organize people and how to overcome challenges and solve problems.

In this activity, you will use information you learned in reading The Handbook of Texas Online articles about them. Choose one of the activities below.

1. Write a short essay on two things Esther and Alice accomplished and write the dates when they accomplished them. (Use information you placed in the “What Esther and Alice Accomplished,” table on page 7 to write your essay.)

2. Imagine you are Esther or Alice and write a letter inviting women to attend a meeting to set up a Ladies LULAC group. Review the article on LULAC to come up with some reasons why women might want to join Ladies LULAC.

3. Imagine you are a TV reporter covering a story about the new LULAC Ladies organization. Write at least three questions you would ask Esther and Alice, and for each question, write what their responses might have been.

Keep in mind:

Esther and Alice used their abilities to think critically, to organize, to speak publicly, and to defend their ideas. Try to do the same in carrying out your activity.
What Esther & Alice Accomplished

Fill in the tables below. Place two examples, along with the date, of Esther’s and Alice’s accomplishments. You will use these examples to complete activity #1 suggested in the “Esther and Alice Create a Place for Women’s Voices in LULAC” Activity Sheet.
